Bringing Value to Every Dairywoman

New position: Director of Program Development
Application deadline: March 25, 2016

Position objective:
The Director of Program Development supports the Dairy Girl Network mission and vision, Board of Directors, stakeholders, Director of Public Relations and members in charting the direction of the organization.

Qualifications:

- Passion for dairy farming
- Innovative thinker with desire to dream big while executing details
- Proficient in written and verbal communications
- Skilled in writing for published media
- Excellence in organizational management
- Action-oriented
- Ability to work effectively in collaboration with diverse groups of people
- Positive attitude, integrity, mission-driven and self directed

Responsibilities:

- Management of program areas which may be prioritized by experience and interest
  - Programs may include any of the following: peer groups, Inspire mentorship, webinars, events, financials, promotions and communications
- Promote DGN programs through print and digital communications including social media, website, e-newsletter, publications, flyers and direct mail
- Manage committees and volunteers
- Complete all other duties and responsibilities as assigned
- Represent DGN mission, vision and values through personal 'dairy girl' involvement in a positive manner

Requirements:

- Work remotely as an independent contractor with flexible schedule at maximum of 20 hours per week

Submit resume and three references by Friday, March 25
Brenda Gilbertson, DGN Director of Public Relations
brenda.gilbertson@gmail.com, 608.574.2855